WHEREAS, on May 8, 2023, the Court entered the Order (I) Appointing Co-Mediators and (II) Establishing Mediation Protocol [Dkt. 459] (the “Mediation Order”); and

WHEREAS, at a hearing held May 16, 2023, the Court determined that the Mediation Order should be amended to authorize and direct Kenneth R. Feinberg, the expert appointed pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 706 (the “2022 Court-Appointed Expert”) in the Debtor’s prior chapter 11 case (the “2021 Chapter 11 Case”) to provide to the Co-Mediators (defined below) the documents, electronic files or information collected and/or prepared by him or his professionals during his tenure as the 2022 Court-Appointed Expert (the “Court-Appointed Expert Information”).

Now, therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that the Mediation Order is amended and restated as follows:

Johnson & Johnson, Alberta Court of Queen’s Bench (File Number 1901-11748), the proposed representative plaintiff in the action styled Baker v. Johnson & Johnson, Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Court File No. CV-16-533046CP), the proposed representative plaintiff in the action styled Williamson v. Johnson & Johnson, British Columbia Supreme Court (Case No. 179011), and any other Canadian representative(s), including the Canadian representative of the other putative classes active in Canada, who request to participate in the Mediation and agree to be bound by the terms of this Order if the Co-Mediators determine, in their sole discretion, such additional representative(s) should participate in the Mediation or the Court orders that such representatives should participate; and (h) any other party or representative (including ad hoc committees) who wish to participate in the Mediation and agrees to be bound by the terms of this Order. The Co-Mediators may determine, in their sole discretion, the manner, timing and/or extent of any Mediation Party’s participation in the Mediation. 4. Subject to the terms of this Order and applicable law, D.N.J. LBR 9019-1 and 9019-2, including, but not limited to, all confidentiality and privilege provisions therein applicable to mediation, as well as the following terms and guidelines will govern the Mediation process between the Mediation Parties:

- a. The Debtor must immediately serve the Co-Mediators with a copy of this Order.
- b. The scheduling and location of all Mediation sessions will be determined by the Co-Mediators. Sessions may be held in person, telephonically or by videoconference.
- c. With respect to the participation of the ad hoc committee of states holding consumer protection claims in the Mediation sessions, the selection of participating states/districts in the Mediation sessions will be at the sole discretion of the ad hoc committee of states holding consumer protection claims.
- d. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Local Bankruptcy Rules, the Co-Mediators may conduct the Mediation as they see fit, establish rules of the Mediation, and consider and take appropriate action with respect to any matters the Co-Mediators deem appropriate to conduct the Mediation, subject to the terms of this Order.
- e. The Mediation Parties will make a good faith attempt to settle the Mediation Issues. The Mediation Parties, either personally or through a representative with authority to negotiate and settle the Mediation Issues, will make reasonable efforts to attend all sessions scheduled by the Co-Mediators to which they are invited to attend by the Co-Mediators.

- f. The Co-Mediators will be compensated at current standard hourly rates set and agreed in advance of the Mediation. The Co-Mediators are authorized to use associates or paralegals from their offices for necessary and reasonable assistance, at their standard rates. The Debtor is solely responsible for the Co-Mediators' fees. The fees are due not later than 30 days after presentation of the Co-Mediators' invoices, with copies to the TCC, and the United States Trustee for Region 3 (the "U.S. Trustee").
- g. The Co-Mediators are permitted, at their discretion, to speak ex parte with the Court on procedural matters, provided, however that both Co-Mediators must be present for any such ex parte discussion unless a Co-Mediator obtains the consent of the other Co-Mediator to engage in ex parte discussion with the Court without the presence of the other. The Co-Mediators are also permitted, at their discretion, together or individually, to speak with the individual Mediation Parties and/or their representatives about the Mediation Issues.
- h. The Co-Mediators may provide periodic status reports, substantially in the form of the Local Form Mediation Report as they deem appropriate. Reports shall be filed under seal in the event that such reports disclose confidential settlement terms or proposals. An unredacted copy of any such report shall be provided to the U.S. Trustee and the U.S. Trustee shall maintain the confidentiality of such sealed report pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 107(c)(3). An unredacted copy of any such report, together with periodic oral updates, also shall be provided to the information officer (the “Information Officer”) appointed by the Canadian court in the proceedings commenced pursuant to Part IV of the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) R.S.C. 1985, c. C 36 and with respect to which the Debtor has been appointed as foreign representative. The Information Officer shall maintain the confidentiality of any information provided to it hereunder consistent with paragraph 5 of this Order.

- i. Not later than 7 days after the conclusion of the Mediation, the date of which will be determined by the Co-Mediators or the Court, the Co-Mediators must file a Local Form Mediation Report.

5. Confidentiality:

- a. Except as provided in paragraph 5.c. below, unless the Co-Mediators and the Mediation Parties agree otherwise in writing, or unless disclosure is permitted or required by this Order or applicable law, including, without limitation, any state public disclosure laws, the Co-Mediators, the Mediation Parties, and other participants in the Mediation may not disclose to any entity or person who was not a participant in the Mediation any oral or written communication concerning the Mediation, including any document, report or other writing presented or used solely in connection with the Mediation (hereinafter, the “Protected Information”).

- b. A Mediation Party who receives Protected Information may not disclose such Protected Information to another Mediation Party unless the Co-Mediators and the Mediation Party who disclosed such information agree in writing, or unless disclosure is permitted or required by this Order or applicable law including, without limitation, any state public disclosure laws.
- c. A Co-Mediator must disclose to a proper authority information obtained at a Mediation session if required by law, or if a Co-Mediator or a Mediation Party has a reasonable belief that the disclosure will prevent a Mediation Party from committing a criminal or illegal act likely to result in death or serious bodily harm.
- d. A Co-Mediator shall not testify in any judicial proceeding as to any Protected Information, statements, matters, occurrences or observations arising out of the Mediation except by express written agreement of all Mediation Parties. This clause is not applicable to any litigation to enforce the terms of any written agreement reached by the Mediation Parties in the course of the Mediation wherein the meaning or content of such agreement is put in issue.

- e. No written record or transcript of any discussion had in the course of Mediation is to be kept, absent express written agreement by the Mediation Parties.
- f. Subject to paragraphs 5.h., 5.i., 5.k., and 7, Protected Information, whether written or verbal, is not subject to discovery or admissible in evidence in any subsequent proceeding. A Mediation Party may by independent evidence establish the substance of Protected Information in the subsequent proceeding.
- g. The disclosure by a Mediation Party of information to the Co-Mediators that would otherwise be shielded from disclosure in any other proceeding by virtue of the attorney-client, attorney work product, or other applicable privilege does not waive or otherwise adversely affect the privileged nature of that information. The Co-Mediators shall not provide privileged information or disclose the contents thereof to any other person, entity, or Mediation Party without the consent of the producing party (except that the Co-Mediators may disclose privileged information to any person assisting the Co-Mediators in the performance of their mediation duties, in which event such assistant shall be subject to the same restrictions as the Co-Mediators with respect to such privileged information). For the avoidance of doubt, information that is not privileged before it is shared with the Co-Mediators does not become privileged pursuant to this subparagraph 5.g. solely because it was shared with the Co-Mediators.

- h. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein prohibits a Mediation Party from disclosing its own position with respect to the treatment of claims or issues in the Chapter 11 Case or disclosing its own work product or underlying documents that were not prepared by another Mediation Party or the Co-Mediators for the purposes of Mediation in any subsequent litigation (including in this Court during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Case) solely because such documents were also used in whole or in part or such issues were discussed during the Mediation.
- i. Nothing provided in this Order shall prohibit or limit the Debtor's or any Debtor affiliate's right or obligation to share information, including Protected Information, with any insurer if required under any applicable insurance contract and such insurer agrees to maintain the confidentiality of such information.
- j. Mr. Russo shall not destroy documents, electronic files or information as required by paragraph 18 of the Order (I) Dismissing Debtor's Chapter 11 Case Pursuant to § 1112(b); (II) Establishing Procedures With Respect to Requests for Compensation; and (III) Granting Related Relief, In re LTL Mgmt. LLC, No. 21-30589 (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 4, 2023), Dkt. 3938 (the "Dismissal Order"). In the event of any destruction of such information prior to his appointment as Co-Mediator, Mr. Russo shall provide notice of any documents, electronic files or information destroyed pursuant to the Dismissal Order.

- k. Nothing provided in this Order shall prohibit or limit any insurer's right or obligation to share information, including Protected Information, with any other insurer, any reinsurer upon request of such reinsurer, or any auditor or regulator upon request of such auditor or regulator if required under any insurance contract, reinsurance contract or applicable regulation and such insurer, reinsurer, auditor or regulator is provided a copy of this Order and agrees to maintain the confidentiality of such information in accordance with this Order. If any such insurer, reinsurer, auditor or regulator does not agree to maintain the confidentiality of such information in accordance with this Order, then prior to disclosing such Protected Information, the applicable insurer shall promptly provide written notice of its intended disclosure to the Mediation Parties to permit any Mediation Party, at its own expense, to seek a protective order or take other appropriate action (collectively, a "Protective Motion"). If a Protective Motion is filed within fifteen days following the receipt of such notice (the "Notice Period"), the applicable insurer shall not produce the requested information to such reinsurer, auditor or regulator pending a determination of such motion. If no Protective Motion is filed within the Notice Period or the Protective Motion is denied, the applicable insurer may produce the requested information to such reinsurer, auditor or regulator consistent with any order in respect of the Protective Motion, if applicable.

6. The 2022 Court-Appointed Expert and his professionals shall not destroy any Court-Appointed Expert Information notwithstanding the terms of the Dismissal Order, including paragraph 18.

- a. The 2022 Court-Appointed Expert and his professionals shall meet and confer with the Co-Mediators and no other party regarding the Court-Appointed Expert Information. At the request of the Co-Mediators, the 2022 Court Appointed-Expert and his professionals may discuss with, and shall provide to, subject to the terms of paragraph 6.b. of this Order, the Co-Mediators such Court-Appointed Expert Information. The content of any such discussions among the 2022 Court-Appointed Expert, his professionals and the Co-Mediators shall not be disclosed to any other party, shall not be subject to discovery in this or any other proceeding and shall not be memorialized in a written record or transcript.
- b. The Co-Mediators may not disclose, produce or otherwise provide any of the Court-Appointed Expert Information (including, without limitation, any work product or supporting documents) to any party at any time; provided, however, that to the extent a party has provided or provides to

- c. The disclosure to the Co-Mediators of any Court-Appointed Expert Information subject to privilege or attorney work product doctrines by the 2022 Court-Appointed Expert and his professionals shall not constitute a waiver of the applicable privilege or work product doctrines.
- d. Except as otherwise set forth in this paragraph 6, this paragraph 6 shall control with respect to the treatment of any Court-Appointed Expert Information to the extent of any inconsistency with any other provision of this Order, including, without limitation, paragraph 5, or the Order Governing Confidential Information By and Between the Official
